

Quarter Ended June 30, 2021

Estimated Sources of Distributions—Section 19(a) Notice (Quarterly)

Guggenheim Credit Income Fund 2019

Guggenheim Credit Income Fund 2019 ("GCIF 2019") has paid distributions to shareholders during the quarter ended June 30, 2021. This notice is provided pursuant to Section 19(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and Rule 19(a) thereunder, which provide that any distribution in the nature of a dividend payment not made solely from net investment income and accumulated undistributed net income must be accompanied by a written statement adequately disclosing the sources of such distribution payment.

Pursuant to a plan of liquidation, return of capital will begin to represent a higher percentage of the source of distributions. The following table discloses the estimated sources of the distributions declared for the second quarter of 2021, determined in accordance with good accounting practice.

Estimated Sources of Distributions	Per Share Amount	% of Distribution
Net Investment Income	$0.27745	9.53%
Realized Capital Gains	—	—
Return of Capital	$2.63255	90.47%
Total Distributions	$2.91000	100.00%

The sources of distributions are estimates and are not being provided for tax planning purposes. The timing and character of distributions for federal income tax purposes are determined in accordance with income tax regulations. GCIF 2019 will mail a Form 1099-DIV to shareholders in February 2022 that will report the allocation components of calendar year distributions for federal income tax reporting purposes.

For further information regarding GCIF 2019's distributions and other performance metrics, we encourage you to review the most recent Form 10-Q, available at sec.gov. If you have any questions, please call 888 667 4937, the Guggenheim Credit Income Fund Investor Services line.
